

Types of Lures

Affection Lure Understand the difference of real love versus fake love. Have the right to say NO!	Assistance Lure Adults ask other adults for help. Children ask parents before helping other adults. Take 3 steps back from a car and run the other way.	Authority Lure Use caution if falsely accused of a crime. Legal right to request a uniformed police officer in a marked car.
Pornography Lure Never remove clothing for photos or videotaping. Adults should never show a child pornographic materials.	Bribery Lure Gifts do not come with strings attached. Nothing should be expected in return with secrets.	Ego/Fame Lure Talent agents must first talk to parents. Parents can only sign contracts.
Emergency Lure Create a “Family Plan of Action.” Verify emergencies by calling or running home.	Fun & Games Lure No games should use rope, handcuffs, or duct tape.	Hero Lure Even if someone looks famous don’t go with them. Don’t go with someone to meet a famous person.
Job Lure Parents accompany all children on job interviews. Parents know everything about a child’s job (employer, hours, and pay). Children never go to a customer’s house. Children ask parents before accepting and job or chore.	Name Recognition Lure Children don’t go with someone just because they know the child’s name. Place child’s name where not visible to a stranger (including backpacks). Be careful of names on cars, especially with teenage drivers.	Online Computer Lure People online are not who they claim. Children never give out personal information while online. Never meet an online acquaintance. Pornography should be reported to an adult, your provider, or www.cybertipline.com.
Threats & Weapons Lure Verbal threat is a felony and must be reported. Weapons intimidate. Children should make commotion and try to get away.	Hate & Violence Lure Children should accept people’s differences. Bullying, sexual harassment, weapons & threats are wrong & reportable. There are consequences to our words & actions	Playmate Lure Playmates/Friends should never entice others to make body contact or view pornographic materials.
Drug Lure Drugs inhibit children, are potentially dangerous, and addictive.		Pet Lure Never go with someone to help find a lost pet or see a pet.